

AP MACRO/AP MICRO

AP Economics is divided into Macroeconomics (1st semester) and Microeconomics (2nd semester). It is a rigorous course that aim to give students an understanding of the basics of how an economy works using graphs and models. They will learn the different market structures as well as the different financial institutions and policies that regulate an economy

Learn more from College Board: Macro/Micro

Prerequisites

- No Prerequisites

Expectations and Assessments

Who should take it

- Students who would like to major in Econ or Finance
- Students who want to better their understanding of economic concepts

Instructional Approaches

- Collaborative work
- Lecture
- Projects
- Practices MCQs/FRQs
- 2 full practice exams

AP Classroom resources: Macro/Micro

Contact sor@fcps.edu for more information.

AP Economics

Work time Expectations and Course Structure

- Good Attendance
- Quick Pace / Deadlines for assignments
- Independent Textbook Reading (AMSCO), Note Taking (Cornell Notes), Study
- Test may cover multiple chapters
- Willingness to collaborate with others for group work
- Independent and Group Projects and Presentations
- 6 units for Macroeconomics and 6 units for Microeconomics
- Students learning is highly subjective and need to understand that it is a difficult subject to master as students have never been exposed to economics before.

The content of this document comes from The College Board website .

What are the AP Assessments for this class?

Summative Assessments
70%

Test and Major Projects

Formative Assessments
30%

Quizzes, Class work, homework .

AP Exam

Section I: Multiple Choice

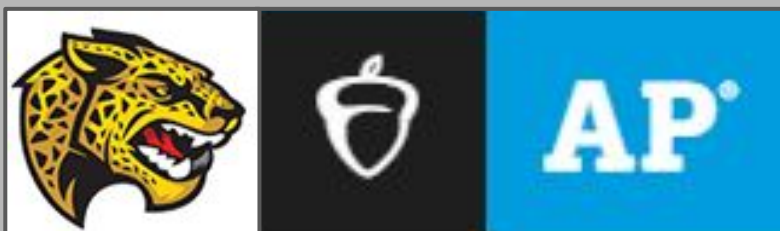

60Qs 70 min.

66% of score

Section II: Free Response

3 Qs 70 min.

33% of score

Return to page 1